CHAPTER 1 - ORGANISATION OF THE U-17 AFRICA CUP OF NATIONS

ARTICLE 1

1.1. The African Football Confederation – CAF- shall organise every other year a competition called the U-17 Africa Cup of Nations.

1.2. CAF reserves the right to add to this denomination the name of a sponsor partner.

ARTICLE 2

The U-17 Africa Cup of Nations is open to the national representative teams of the associations affiliated to CAF, each Association being entitled to include one team.

ARTICLE 3

The U-17 Africa Cup of Nations is a qualifying tournament for the final phase of the FIFA U-17 World Cup.

ARTICLE 4

The U-17 Africa Cup of Nations shall consist of two phases:

4.1. A qualifying phase.

4.2. A final tournament.

CHAPTER 2 - ORGANISING COMMITTEE

ARTICLE 5

The Organising Committee of the U-17 Africa Cup of Nations will be in charge of the elaboration of the regulations governing the competition and the organisation of the competition. It is responsible for:

5.1. Qualifying and final phases:

- Ensuring that sanctions imposed by any CAF body are applied;
- Replacing, in conformity with the present regulations, the associations declaring their withdrawal;
- Taking decisions on all claims. These decisions shall be based on written reports of the referee, the assistant referees and/or the commissioner, and any other official appointed by CAF;
- Identifying cases of force majeure;

- Homologating the match's results. In the absence of protests or claims, matches are automatically homologated 10 days after the match in the qualification phase and 48 hours after the match in the final phase. All homologation decisions are binding and final;
- In emergency cases, the Organising Committee may take decisions by mail or by fax or email.
- The Organizing committee can delegate some of its prerogatives to the zonal unions as recognized in CAF statutes for the management of the qualifying phase.

5.2. Final Phase:

- Ensuring, with the collaboration of the organising association, the preparatory work of the Final Tournament.
- Proceeding to the drawing of lots,
- Setting, after consulting the organising associations, of the dates, the venues and the time of the kick-off of matches.
- Taking all necessary decisions for the smooth running of the competition in accordance with provisions of the present regulations.
- Appointing Sub-Committees having the rights and prerogatives of the Organising Committee.

CHAPTER 3 - TROPHY AND MEDALS

ARTICLE 6

The winner of each edition will receive a replica with the same dimensions of the original trophy

ARTICLE 7

CAF shall grant thirty (30) gold medals to the winner and thirty (30) silver medals to the finalist.

CAF shall give grant thirty (30) bronze medals to the team ranked third and thirty (30) diplomas to the team ranked fourth in the Final Tournament.

ARTICLE 8

A medal will be granted to each referee, referee assistant, fourth official, VAR referees, commissioner and coordinator appointed for the third place matches as well as the final match.

CHAPTER 4 - FAIR-PLAY

ARTICLE 9

A Fair-Play trophy shall be awarded to the team that will have shown the best fair-play spirit during the final phase of the U-17 Africa Cup of Nations, in conformity with the CAF Fair-play regulations.

CHAPTER 5 - OTHER PRIZES AND REWARDS

ARTICLE 10

The granting of any other trophies, prizes and/or awards requires the agreement of CAF Executive Committee. Any physical or moral person who wishes to present a prize or an award to one or several players and /or to teams, on the occasion of the U-17 Africa Cup of Nations must formulate a request to the General Secretariat of CAF, at the latest three months before the competition.

CHAPTER 6 - ENGAGEMENTS

ARTICLE 11

11.1 The national association wishing to engage in the U17 Africa Cup of Nations should formulate their request to its Zonal Union to which it belongs in accordance to the zones allocation mentioned in CAF statutes. Each Zonal Union informs CAF of the engaged teams in their zone.

11.2 CAF will provide the zonal unions with the specific forms of engagements and will fix the engagement deadline. The registration of players should be done on CAF online system

11.3 The national association who submit their engagement request to the U17 Africa Cup of Nations to their Zonal Union undertake formally to fully observe the regulations of the competition, CAF marketing and media regulations, the decisions of the Organising and Disciplinary committees, the referees committee, the appeal committee and the executive committee of CAF and comply with them unreservedly.

11.4 The national association organising the U17 Africa Cup of Nations is automatically admitted to the final tournament of the competition.

11.5 CAF defines the age criteria of each competition.

CHAPTER 7 - QUALIFYING PHASE

ARTICLE 12

The qualifying phase is organised in the six zones recognized in CAF statutes. Each zone qualifies two teams with the exception of the zone of the host country organising the Final tournament which will qualify only one team in addition to the host country team which is admitted automatically. Therefore, eleven teams will be qualified to the Final Tournament in addition to the national association hosting the final phase that is automatically admitted.

ARTICLE 13

13.1 Each Zonal Union determine the format of its qualifying tournament taking into consideration the sportive, economical and geographical specific factors. The format must be approved by CAF.

13.2 In case of qualifier matches organised by direct knockout system, played home and away the qualified team is determined as follows:

- a) The team which shall have a higher aggregate number of goals in the two matches shall be qualified for the next round of the competition.
- b) If at the end of the regular time of the second match, the two teams have scored the same number of goals during the two matches, the team which will have scored the greatest number of away goals shall be qualified for the following round of the competition.
- c) If the number of away goals is the same or if the results of the two matches are nil, the winner shall be determined by the taking of kicks from the penalty mark carried out by each team according to the recommendations of the International Board. The team which will score the greatest number of goals shall be qualified for the next round of the competition.

No extra time is played in the U-17 matches

13.3 In case of qualifying tournament, the classification of the groups shall be as follows:

- a)
 - 3 points for the winner
 - 1 point for a draw
 - 0 point for the loser.
- b) In case of points equality between two teams at the end of the group matches, the teams will be ranked according to the following criteria in the order listed below:
 - 1- The highest number of points obtained in the match between the two concerned teams;

- 2- The goal difference in all group matches;
- 3- The highest number of goals scored in the whole group matches;
- 4- A drawing of lots conducted by the Organising Committee of the zone

c) In case of equality between more than two teams at the end of the group matches, the teams will be ranked according to the following criteria in the order listed below:

- 1- The greatest number of points obtained in the matches between the concerned teams;
 - 2- The best goal difference in the matches between the concerned teams;
 - 3- The greatest number of goals scored in the matches between the concerned teams;
 - 4- If after applying criteria a to c, two teams are still equal, a to c criteria are again applied to matches played between the two teams in question to determine the final ranking of the two teams. If this procedure does not allow classifying them, the criteria listed below are applied in the indicated order;
- The goals difference in all group matches;
 - The highest number of goals scored in all group matches;
 - A drawing of lots conducted by the Organising Committee

CHAPTER 8 - ORGANISATION OF THE MATCHES

ARTICLE 14

14.1 The matches of the qualifiers are played in the territory of each zone in conformity to the dates fixed by the zonal unions and approved by CAF.

CAF can, at any moment amend the dates, kick-off times or the venues of the matches.

14.2. Each Zonal union is responsible of the process of choosing the host country which will be validated by CAF.

14.3 The qualifying tournament must be held in the even year preceding the Final tournament

14.4. Matches are played at daylight or under floodlights

14.5. The matches must be played on natural turf or artificial turf, in case artificial turf is used for the matches of the competition between representative teams, this artificial turf should be in conformity with the specifications of the FIFA regulations.

14.6. The host team shall put at the disposal of the visiting team a training field all along their sojourn and at their convenience.

14.7. The matches shall be played according to the laws decided by the International Football Association Board and promulgated by FIFA.

14.8. If the match is interrupted due to darkness before the end of the regular time and if one of the 2 teams is behind it except in cases of force majeure, the latter shall be considered as a loser and shall be eliminated from the competition.

14.9. If the referee is forced to stop the match before the end of the regular time because of pitch invasion or aggression against one team. The team of the spectators who invaded the pitch shall be considered as a loser and shall be eliminated from the competition, without prejudice to the sanctions provided for in the regulations.

14.10. If a match is interrupted after kick off due to force majeure, the following principles are to be applied:

14.10.1 The match should resume starting from the minute at which it was interrupted, instead of being replayed entirely and with the same score;

14.10.2 The match will resume with the same players on the field and with the same substitutes which were available when the match was interrupted;

14.10.3 No additional substitutes will be added to the list of players summoned;

14.10.4 Teams are only allowed the number of substitutions that they were entitled to when the match was interrupted;

14.10.5 Players sent off before the match was interrupted cannot be replaced;

14.10.6 Any sanctions imposed before the match was interrupted remain in force for the rest the match;

14.10.7 The time, date and kick-off location will be decided by the match commissioner.

14.10.8 The match can eventually be continued in another stadium in the same city.

14.11 If a team refuses to take part in the rescheduled game, he will be sanctioned according to with the present regulations.

14.12. For nocturnal matches, if the match is interrupted because of darkness following a power cut, the referee shall stop definitively the game after waiting for forty-five (45) minutes and the organizing committee will take the necessary decision.

14.13. The national associations hosting the U-17 Africa Cup of Nations are required to conclude a civil liability insurance, a copy of this policy is to be sent to CAF three months before the start of the competition.

14.14. CAF officials should ensure that these instructions are carried out by the organising country.

CHAPTER 23 - TRANSMISSION AND PUBLICITY RIGHTS

ARTICLE 42

The transmission and publicity rights of all matches during the preliminary rounds are the propriety of CAF. However, it may concede them graciously to the zonal union and / or to the associations. In this case, the latter must pay the quote part of CAF as fixed in the present regulations.

CHAPTER 24 - DOPING

ARTICLE 43

43.1. Doping is the use of substances that could have the effect of artificially improving the player's physical and/or mental condition and so augmenting artificially his athletic performance.

43.2. Doping is strictly forbidden internationally.

43.3 The use of forbidden substances shall be punished in accordance with the CAF regulations and Disciplinary Code.

43.4 The organising committee has the right to carry out anti-doping control on players at any time during the matches of the U-17 Africa Cup of Nations.

43.5 The organising committee is in charge of deciding which authorised laboratory shall proceed to the analysis of samples.

43.6 The regulations of doping control for FIFA and non-FIFA competitions, the disciplinary code of CAF and other related, in force, FIFA directives are applied to the matches of the U-17 Africa Cup of Nations.

CHAPTER 25 - FORFEIT, WITHDRAWAL, REFUSAL TO PLAY, AND REPLACEMENT

ARTICLE 44

The engaged teams must play all the matches of the qualifying phase. In case of forfeit, they shall be responsible for financial consequences that shall be determined by the organising Committee of CAF.

ARTICLE 45

Any national association declaring forfeit after having been registered and before the drawing of lots shall lose its entry fees and is liable to a fine of one thousand two hundred and fifty (1250) U.S. dollars. It shall also not be allowed to participate in the next edition of the U-17 Africa Cup of Nations.

ARTICLE 46

Any national Association declaring forfeit after the drawing of lots and before the start of matches is liable to a fine of two thousand and five hundred (2.500) U.S. dollars. It will also not be allowed to participate in the next edition of the U-17 Africa Cup of Nations.

ARTICLE 47

Any association declaring forfeit after the start of the matches is liable to a fine of five thousand (5.000) U.S. dollars. It will also not be allowed to participate in the next edition of the U-17 Africa Cup of Nations.

ARTICLE 48

If a team withdraws from the qualifying phase, organized at home and away format on knock-out system, the opposing team, which it was scheduled to meet, shall be qualified.

ARTICLE 49

If a team withdraws from the final or qualifying phase organised in groups, all its results shall be annulled (points, scored and conceded goals).

ARTICLE 50

A team that withdraws or refuses to play the return match after having played the first leg on its own territory must refund the association of the visiting team a minimum fixed indemnity of four thousand (4.000) U.S. dollars in repair to the damage suffered by the host country.

ARTICLE 51

If, for any reason whatsoever, a team withdraws from the competition or does not report for a match, except in cases of force majeure accepted by the Organising Commission, or refuses to play or leaves the field before the regular end of the match without the authorisation of the referee, it shall be considered as a loser and shall be eliminated for good from the current competition.

ARTICLE 52

A team that shall not be present in the field, dressed to play at the time fixed for kick-off or at most 15 minutes later, shall be declared forfeit. The referee shall register the absence of the team and shall write it in his report. The Organising Committee shall take the final decision in this respect.

ARTICLE 53

The faulty under the terms of the above articles will be excluded for good from the competition. This team will lose its matches by 3-0 unless the opponent has scored a more advantageous result at the moment when the match was interrupted, in this case this score will be maintained. The Organising Committee may adopt further measures towards it.

ARTICLE 54

The guilty team shall be excluded from the tournament and as a result none of its matches shall be taken into consideration, unless the incidents mentioned in the above articles did not occur in the last group match. The Organising Committee can take further measures.

ARTICLE 55

The Organising Committee shall consider cases of force majeure likely to be raised.

CHAPTER 26 - ORGANISATION OF THE FINAL TOURNAMENT

ARTICLE 56

Twelve representative teams shall be qualified for the Final Tournament.

56.1 Only the team of the association organising the Final Tournament is automatically qualified.

56.2 The other eleven (11) teams are qualified for the final tournament following the qualifying phase played by the zones.

56.3 The matches of the Final Tournament must be played on the territory of the organising association. In case of co-organisation, the matches must be played on the territories of the co-organiser countries.

56.4. The opening of the final phase of the U-17 Africa Cup of Nations must be held during uneven years

56.5 The dates and venues of the Final Tournament matches shall be fixed by the Organising Committee of CAF, after consultation of the organising association, allowing each team to have a minimum break of 48 hours between two matches.

56.6 The kick-off time of the matches shall be fixed by the Organising Committee after consulting the organizing federation. The teams must be present in the dressing rooms at least 90 minutes before kick-off. Each team must present the accreditations of the 21 players selected (three of whom must be goalkeepers) and registered on the sheet of the match to take part in the match.

CHAPTER 27 - COLOURS OF JERSEYS AND SHORTS - NUMBERING

ARTICLE 57

Each association shall communicate to CAF, a month before the kick-off of the Final Tournament, the main colours and the reserve colours of its equipment. The numbers from 1 to 23 on the shirts and shorts as well as the players' names on the shirts must comply with the CAF Equipment Regulations. The number 1 will be reserved exclusively to one of the goalkeepers. The selected numbers on the back of the shirts must correspond to those indicated on the players final list of the team.

CHAPTER 28 - LIST OF PLAYERS FOR THE FINAL TOURNAMENT

ARTICLE 58

58.1. Ten (10) days before the first match of the Final Tournament, a list of a maximum of twenty one (21) players must be submitted to CAF secretariat and the concerned teams. Any national Association that does not conform to this provision will pay to CAF a fine of five thousand (5.000) US dollars. No other modification to the list of twenty-one (21) players will be allowed, unless in cases of force majeure recognized as such by the organizing Committee. If the list of 21 players is not received at CAF Secretariat 7 days prior to the kick-off day of the Final Tournament, the concerned team will be only allowed to register 19 players.

58.2. A player on the final list cannot be replaced unless seriously injured at the latest twenty-four hours (24) before the beginning of the first match of his team. The CAF medical Committee must approve his substitution by writing, after reception and approval of a detailed medical certificate. CAF medical Committee shall write a certificate attesting that the injury is sufficiently serious to prevent the player from participating at the U-17 Africa Cup of Nations and will submit this certificate to the organizing Committee for approval.

Once the certificate is approved, the association should then immediately appoint a substitute immediately and inform CAF General Secretariat accordingly. CAF General Secretariat shall publish the final list of twenty-one (21) players.

58.3. The name of the twenty one players must be written on the list of each match (11 players and 10 substitutes). Only 17 persons (7 officials and 10 substitutes) shall be authorised to seat on the substitution bench.

CHAPTER 29 - FIRST PHASE OF THE FINAL TOURNAMENT

ARTICLE 59

59.1 Three groups A, B, C each of four teams shall be formed by the Organising Committee of CAF. The organising country shall be the head of group A. Group C shall comprise the holder of the trophy, if qualified, or the team having obtained the best classification in the previous tournament.

59.2. The other teams shall be distributed within groups by public drawing of lots to which representatives of the participating teams will be invited. However, the absence of these representatives shall not prevent the organisation of the draw at the scheduled day.

59.3. The date of the drawing of lots will be fixed by the Organizing Committee.

59.4. The group matches shall be played in accordance with the calendar set by the Organising Committee.

59.5. The classification of the groups shall be as follows:

- 3 points for the winner
- 1 point for a draw
- 0 point for the loser.

ARTICLE 60

60.1 In case of points equality between two teams at the end of the group matches, the teams will be ranked according to the following criteria in the order listed below:

- 60.1.1 The highest number of points obtained in the match between the two concerned teams;
- 60.1.2 The goal difference in all group matches;
- 60.1.3 The highest number of goals scored in the whole group matches;
- 60.1.4 A drawing of lots conducted by the Organising Committee.

60.2 In case of equality between more than two teams at the end of the group matches, the teams will be ranked according to the following criteria in the order listed below:

- 60.2.1. The greatest number of points obtained in the matches between the concerned teams;
- 60.2.2. The best goal difference in the matches between the concerned teams;
- 60.2.3. The greatest number of goals scored in the matches between the concerned teams;
- 60.2.4. If after applying criteria 60.2.1 to 60.2.3, two teams are still equal, 60.2.1 to 60.2.3. criteria are again applied to matches played between the two teams in question to determine the final ranking of the two teams. If this procedure does not allow classifying them, the criteria listed from 60.2.5 to 60.2.7 are applied in the indicated order;
- 60.2.5. The goals difference in all group matches;
- 60.2.6. The highest number of goals scored in all group matches;

60.2.7. A drawing of lots conducted by the Organising Committee
