The organisation, the calendar and the order of the qualifying phase matches and the number of qualifiers for the next phase are decided by the organising committee taking into account, as much as possible, the sporting, economic and geographical conditions, as well as the number of countries engaged in the competition.

Article 12

The matches organised by direct knockout system, are played home and away. In this case, the team that shall have a higher aggregate number of goals in the two matches shall be qualified for the next round of the competition.

If after the end of the regular time of the second match, the two teams have scored the same number of goals during the two matches, the team which will have scored the greatest number of away goals shall be qualified for the following round of the competition.

If the number of away goals is the same or if the results of the matches are nil, the winner shall be determined by the taking of kicks from the penalty mark carried out by each team in compliance with the laws of the game of Futsal.

Chapter 8 - Organisation of the matches

Article 13

13.1. The matches are played exclusively in the order established by the Organising Committee. The dates fixed by the Committee are final and cannot be changed except in case of force majeure recognised as such by the said Committee.

13.2. The host association is entitled to play its match in the capital of its country or in another city. In this latter case, the transportation expenses (round trip) of the visiting team from the capital to the city designated for the match will be borne by the host association.

13.3. By agreement between the two concerned federations and the organising committee, the two matches (home and away) may be played in the same country.

13.4. The floodlights installations must ensure that all the field of play is lit in accordance to CAF requirements.

13.5. The pitch, futsal equipment must comply with the futsal laws of the game.

13.6. Each hall shall have a clock with precise timekeeping connected to the timekeeper table.

13.7. The pitch shall be put at the disposal of the visiting team for a minimum of one training session and this, at the time fixed for kick-off one day before the match.

13.8. The host team shall put at the disposal of the visiting team a training field during their entire sojourn and at their convenience.

13.9. The matches shall be played in compliance with the laws of the game of Futsal.

13.10. Unless stated otherwise, the venue and the day of the match will be determined by the host federation that shall inform the General Secretariat of CAF and the opposing team thirty (30) days before the match. The kick-off time will be fixed at least twenty (20) days before the match. Failure to each of these obligations shall entail a fine of two thousand (2 000) US dollars.

13.11. If thirty (30) days before the dates retained by CAF, the host association does not fix the venue and the day of the match, the Organising committee will fix them automatically.

13.12. The associations to which the visiting team belongs must inform the Organising Association and CAF of the arrival date of its team fourteen (14) days before the date of the match at the latest. Defaulting associations shall pay a fine of one thousand five hundred (1.500) US Dollars.

13.13. When the stadium of the capital is suspended or unavailable and that the national association is compelled to play its match in the stadium of another city, the conditions para.

13.15 13.14 If the distance between the capital and the city where the match is to take place is greater than 200 km, the host association shall provide transportation for the visiting delegation by air (back and forth). The travel should be made on the day before the match at the latest and at a reasonable hour of the day, except if visiting team arrives late. If this is not possible, the match will be played in the capital except in case of agreement between the two teams.

If there is an international airport in the city where the match will be held or near that city by less than 200 kms; and if the visiting team wishes to land directly at this airport; the host association must facilitate all formalities for entry.

13.15. In case of a clash of the dates fixed by CAF with the regional, sub-regional and national competitions, priority will be given to the competitions of CAF.

13.16. The matches cannot start before 14 hours and not after 22 hours, unless approval is granted exceptionally by the Organizing Committee.

13.17. All the matches are played in accordance to Futsal laws of the game.

13.18. The match lasts two equal periods of 20 minutes and the half time should not exceed 15 minutes.

13.19. If the referee is forced to stop the match before the end of the regular time because of pitch invasion or aggression against the visiting team, the host team shall be considered loser and shall be eliminated from the competition, without prejudice to the sanctions provided for in the regulations.

13.20. If a match is interrupted after kick off due to force majeure, the following principles apply:

13.20.1 The match will resume at the minute and second at which it was interrupted, and with the same score;

13.20.2 The match is resumed with the same players, on the field and with the same substitutes available when the match was interrupted;

13.20.3 No additional replacement will be added to the list of players summoned;

13.20.4 Player sent off during the match interrupted cannot re-enter the match; but can be replaced by another player after a lapse of two minutes in accordance to the futsal laws of the game.

13.20.6 Any sanctions imposed before the match was interrupted remain in force for the rest the match;

13.20.7 The time, date and kick-off location will be decided by the match commissioner;

13.20.8 The match can eventually be continued in another stadium in the same city.

13.21. If a team refuses to take part in the game to be replayed, it will be sanctioned in compliance with the present rules.

13.22. The additional sojourn expenses of the visiting team and the match officials, in relation to accommodation within the hosting country as well as internal transport, shall be borne by the host federation. The additional expenses of the visiting team in relation to flight tickets and transit fees shall be borne by the visiting team.

13.23. If the match is interrupted because of darkness following a failure of electricity, the referee shall stop definitively the game after waiting for forty-five (45) minutes. The failure of electricity cannot be considered as a case of force majeure unless if at the moment of the failure, it is a second leg match of the competition played according to the direct knockout system and the score, on the whole of the two matches, is not in favour of the visiting team. In this case, the match is to be replayed twenty-four (24) hours later. If the score of the two legs is in favour of the visiting team, the host team will be declared loser.

13.24. CAF officials should ensure that these instructions are carried out by the organising country.

Chapter 9 - Match on Neutral Ground

CONFEDERATION AFRICAINE DE FOOTBALL

3 Abdel Khalek Tharwat Street, El Hay El Motamayez, P.O. Box 23 6th October City, Egypt - Tel.: +202 38247272/ Fax : +202 38247274 – info@cafonline.com

Article 14

The preliminary matches of FUTSAL AFCON may take place on a neutral ground, after an agreement is reached between the two concerned national associations and the Organising Committee.

Article 15

In case of a match to be played on a neutral ground, only one match may be played if necessary with penalty kicks to determine the winner.

Chapter 10 - Countries in a state of War / Matches affected by internal situations

Article 16

In case of troubles, epidemics, war, force majeure or internal instable situations in a country that may affect security and/or security conditions when holding a match, the Organising Committee can take the following measures:

16.1 During home and away matches:

16.1.1 If the case involves a single country, its federation shall organize the match in another country, or a single match on the field of the opposing team will be played. Where appropriate, the organizing committee will determine the match venue.

16.1.2 If this case concerns both countries, only one match will be played on a neutral ground.

Chapter 11 - Balls

Article 17

The host Federation shall provide at each match at least ten (10) legal balls approved by FIFA which shall be put at the referees' disposal. They must have one of the following three imprints: the FIFA official logo "FIFA APPROVED" the official logo "FIFA INSPECTED" or "INTERNATIONAL MATCH BOARD STANDARD."

If a game is stopped due to the absence of balls, the referee shall wait for fifteen minutes. After this deadline, the match shall be stopped. The host shall lose the match by penalty (3-0) unless if the score in favour of the visiting team is superior.

Article 18

For the matches on neutral ground, each team must provide at least seven (07) balls that shall be put at the referees' disposal. The team not having brought balls will be sanctioned.

Article 19

Any disputes on financial matters shall be dealt with by the Organising Committee.

Chapter 12 - The Match Commissioner

Article 20

20.1. The organising Committee designates a match commissioner for every game. He is the official representative of CAF and he must be present at the match. In this capacity, he is entitled to a place in the first row of the official tribune.

20.2. Upon the receipt of the notification, the match commissioner shall confirm acceptance of his appointment to CAF. In case of impediment, he must inform the latter by fax or email, within 48 hours following his designation, to allow the Secretariat provide a replacement. In cases of force majeure at the very last minute, the commissioner must send his apologies both to the Secretariat and the Host association by email or fax. The appointed commissioner can be replaced only by the decision of CAF.

20.3. If a presentation of the teams to the authorities is approved by CAF, the match commissioner must accompany the guest of honour and he shall present the referees and the captains of the two teams to the guest of honour.

20.4. On the eve of the match or in the morning of the day of the match, the commissioner must convene and preside a technical meeting the officials of both teams with the referees designated for the match to explain the main points of the rules of the competition. He must ensure the fulfilment of all conditions necessary for the regularity of the match especially what concerns the control service, stay of the referees and the visiting team, proper qualification of the referees on the FIFA list and the control of the players' passports. There will not be any minutes for this meeting. Any eventual dispute shall be recorded by the match commissioner in his report.

20.5. In the absence of the match commissioner, the central referee designated to officiate the match will preside over the technical meeting stipulated for in the above-mentioned para. (20.4).

20.6. In the absence of the coordinator, the match commissioner will go to the dressing rooms to attend the preliminary match formalities for the eligibility of players. He may, if he deems it necessary, go back to the dressing rooms during the half-time recess or after the match.

20.7. In the absence of referees designated by CAF, the match commissioner shall have the match played in conformity to the provisions of the present rules.

20.8. The responsibility of verifying the field's dimensions, of ascertaining the regularity and the practicability of the field and of ascertaining the adequacy of the electric light for the nocturnal matches is exclusively that of the referee.

20.9. Only the referee and his assistants are in charge of the procedures dealing with the substitution of players during the match.

20.10. The match commissioner may, if he deems it necessary for the security of the referees or the visiting team, decide not to have the match started until his conditions and instructions are carried out. But once the match is started, it is exclusively the prerogative of the referee to decide of the suspension or the total stop of the match for any of the reasons stipulated in Law 5 of FIFA laws of the game.

20.11. If the match commissioner receives before the start of the game, a protest from a team on an article of the regulation, he must try to reconcile the points of view within the framework of the regulation. If he does not succeed, he shall register the protest. In all cases, the match must be played in conformity to the provision of rules and according to the interpretation given by the match commissioner.

20.12 The match commissioner shall observe the match in all its aspects and especially the referees' performance (in the absence of the referees' assessor), the evaluation of fair play, the behaviour of the teams and the spectators, the eventual incidents, the organisation of security in the stadium and its access and the organisation of health services. As soon as the match ends, he shall send by fax and/ or email to the Secretariat of CAF, the result of the game and the preliminary report in which the eventual protest lodged by a team must be signalled. He will send to the General Secretariat of CAF maximum in the forty-eight (48) hours following the match, by express mail, or by using the software Competitions Management System of CAF (CMS), the detailed report on the specific form provided by CAF. In case the match commissioner is absent, this duty will be incumbent upon the referee.

20.13. The host association must inform the designated match commissioner of the date, venue and kick-off time of the match twenty (20) days prior to the match date. It must organise the commissioner's trip, his stay and will put at his disposal a car from the day of his arrival until his departure. It must send him an endorsable full fare economy ticket and ensure that he receives his ticket at least fourteen (14 days) before the match. If in this delay, the commissioner does not receive his airplane ticket, he will be authorized to pay his ticket and to travel to the venue of the match. In this case, the host association apart from his sojourn expenses must pay his airplane ticket both ways as well as his indemnities on the day of his arrival according to the applied regulations. It will also pay a fine according to the provisions of the present regulations, without prejudice to other sanctions that the organising Committee could inflict.

20.14. The absence of the commissioner cannot constitute an obstacle to the playing of the matches at the scheduled date and time. In such a case, the appointed commissioner cannot be replaced except by decision of CAF and only the referee's report will bear witness.

20.15. If the absence of the match commissioner is due to a failure of the host association, no protest raised by the latter shall be taken into consideration. In this case, only the report of the referee will bear witness.

Chapter 13 - Referees and Assistant Referees

Article 21

The referees and assistant referees designated for FUTSAL AFCON must be on the current annual FIFA list of international referees and assistant referees. The procedure of their designation by CAF Referees' Committee will be as follows:

21.1. The Referees Committee designates two referees (referee and second referee) and two assistants (third referee and timekeeper) to officiate the matches of FUTSAL AFCON.

21.2 They shall be selected from the FIFA international refereeing list. An additional reserve assistant referee may also be appointed and his only duty will be to replace the timekeeper if any of the referees is unable to continue the match.

21.3. If one of the designated referees is absent or becomes unfit before or during a match, he shall be replaced by the third referee.

21.4. The host Federation shall inform the appointed referees and assistant referees of the venue, date and kick-off time of the match twenty (20) days before the match. It shall organise their travel, their stay and shall put a car at their disposal from the day of their arrival until the day of their.

21.5. The host Federation will make sure that their endorsable economy class flight tickets reach them fourteen (14) days at least before the match. Referees and assistant referees are obliged to use the flight tickets put at their disposal by the organising country. They are in no case authorised to purchase their own airplane tickets to ask the organising association for a refund on the spot.

21.6 Any Association that sends flight tickets shall inform the association to which the referees belong of the dispatch of the flight tickets.

21.7 If the flight tickets for the referees are sent on time by the host country and the referees fail to travel, a fine will be imposed upon the national association to which the referees belong.

21.8 In case of the absence of the designated referees, the visiting team must extend its stay in the venue of the match up to 72 hours as of the hour scheduled for the kick off. In such a case the host association has to provide through a neighbouring neutral association, the arrival of international referees registered on the current annual FIFA list, to allow the match to take place within this allotted time.

21.9 If within this extension, both the referees initially designated and those of the neighbouring association fail to arrive at the venue of the match, and if the visiting team is accompanied by an international referee registered on the current annual FIFA list, the latter shall officiate with the assistance of one referee and two assistants on the current annual FIFA list designated by the host association.

21.10 If the visiting team consents, the match may be played at the hour initially scheduled or before the end of the 72 hours with the officiating of local international referees and assistant referees registered on the current annual FIFA list, designated by the host association.

21.11 In case of the absence of the appointed referees and the match commissioner, and if the visiting team is accompanied by an international referee registered on the current annual FIFA list, the latter shall officiate the match, at the fixed date, with the assistance of two local assistant referees and a local referee registered on the FIFA list of the current year of international referees and the list of international assistant referees and designated by the host association.

21.12. If the visiting team is not accompanied by an international referee, the provisions of the above article 21.8 shall be applied and CAF informed.

21.13 Any international referee accompanying a visiting team shall refrain from penetrating in the field of play or the players' dressing rooms before, during or after the game. He should imperatively follow the game from the VIP tribune and abstain from intervening, at any time, in the running of the game. In default, he will be severely sanctioned.

21.14 The new expenses incurred in cases of extension of stay of the visiting team at the venue of the match, following the absence or late arrival of the referees, shall be borne by the host association.

21.15 If after the playing of the match in the conditions referred to in the above article 21.8, it is established that the absence of the referees designated by CAF was the fault of the host association, and that the competition is played on the knock-out basis, the host team shall be declared loser by penalty and shall be eliminated from the competition. In case of a group match, the team of the host country shall lose by penalty with the score 3 – 0.

21.16 A national association which substitutes from its own initiative the referees or assistant referees designated by CAF, except for the cases mentioned in the above article 21.8, shall be considered loser by penalty and shall be eliminated from the competition if the latter is played on the knock-out basis. In case of a group match, it shall lose a match by penalty 3 – 0.

21.17 At the end of the match, the referee will send to the General Secretariat of CAF maximum in the forty-eight (48) hours following the match, by express mail, or by using the software Competitions Management System of CAF (CMS), the detailed report on the specific form provided by CAF.

At the end of the match he will send to the General Secretariat of CAF maximum in the forty-eight (48) hours following the match, by express mail, or by using the software Competitions Management system of CAF (CMS), the detailed report on the specific form provided by CAF.

Article 24

The General Coordinator designated by CAF, shall assist the match commissioner for the good organisation and the smooth running of the match.

He is particularly in charge of:

- Attending to the respect of the reception and sojourn rules of the officials and teams,
- Attending to the respect of CAF commitments in the matter of marketing, publicity and audio-visual retransmissions,
- Attending to the respect of the fixed schedules and of the match protocol.

At the end of the match, he will send to the General Secretariat of CAF maximum in the forty-eight (48) hours following the match, by express mail, or by using the software Competitions Management System of CAF (CMS), the detailed report on the specific form provided by CAF.

Article 25

The Medical Officer, appointed for the anti-doping control of matches in the qualifying phase, must be assisted by the national associations for the accomplishment of his mission. The national associations must especially:

- Reserve a room in a hotel approved by CAF,
- Assist him in his arrival and departure at the airport,

- Ensure his safety and his transportation,
- Put at his disposal in the stadium a fully equipped media officer room (Photocopying machine, paper, toilet, desk, chairs, mineral water...).

At the end of the match he will send to the General Secretariat of CAF maximum in the forty-eight (48) hours following the match, by express mail, or by using the software Competitions Management System of CAF (CMS), the detailed report on the specific form provided by CAF.

Chapter 15 - Facilities and bearing of expenses for teams and match officials

Article 26

The host association that does not provide, to the visiting team and the designated match officials, all the facilities mentioned in the present regulations shall reimburse all the expenses without prejudice to the sanctions that the Organising Committee may impose upon it subsequently.

Article 27

The visiting association shall assume the travel expenses of its delegation as well as its accommodation and catering in conformity with article 28 below. The host association shall assume the local transportation of the visiting team during three days before the match and two days after, at the most.

Article 28

Reception requirements

The following minimum requirements for reception should be strictly respected:

28.1. Reception at the airport: A Committee formed of the officials of the host association must be at the airport to meet the visiting delegation and must provide all facilities for the entry formalities in the country. One official of the host association, who speaks the language of the visiting delegation, will be at the disposal of the visiting delegation and will act as liaison officer between the two associations.

28.2. Transport Facilities: One bus for the players and one car for the officials will be put at the disposal of the visiting delegation from the time of their arrival to that of their departure. Any additional vehicles are subject to an agreement between the two associations.

28.3. Accommodation: the visiting association is responsible for organizing, securing and covering financially the accommodation of its team.

28.4 The host federation could, if possible, assist the visiting team for the reservation of the rooms.

28.5. Security measures: Law enforcement forces (police) of the host association ensure the security of all the visiting delegation's members, the referees and the commissioner designated to officiate the match. Law enforcement forces (police) prohibit any invasion of the field and any attack against the players or the officials, inside and outside the stadium.

28.6. Seeing the visiting team off: Officials of the host association shall see the visiting delegation off at the airport and shall facilitate all formalities for departure.

Article 29

The host association shall bear the costs of travel in economy class fees, full board accommodation, local transportation of the Referees and CAF will pay the indemnities of the referees.

The host association shall bear the costs of travel in economy class fees, full board accommodation, local transportation as well as the allowances of the match commissioner in conformity to CAF scheme.

CAF shall bear the costs of travel in economy class fees, full board accommodation, as well as the allowances of all other CAF officials in conformity to CAF scheme.

Article 30

The host federation will also take in charge the local transport for all other official designated by CAF.

Article 31

The host association will ensure that each official designated by CAF is accommodated in a room in the same hotel, the latter being approved by CAF and/or the Match Commissioner.

Article 32

If the match Commissioner return home without the host federation having settled all expenses that are due to them in accordance with the regulations, a fine of four thousand (4 000) dollars U.S. will be imposed upon the defaulting federation.

Article 33

If one or more match officials (commissioner, referee and/or assistant referees) are residing outside the capital of their country, the host federation will bear their travel expenses by air (if the distance is more than two hundred kilometres) or by car from their city of residence to the capital of their country and return.

Article 34

Match officials will be required to provide all supporting documents to the host federation to be refunded, according to market prices, including in particular a letter from their federation attesting that the expenses incurred, in conformity with article 33, are correct.

Chapter 16 - Qualification of Players

Article 35

35.1. Each National Association shall select its national representative team from players enjoying the citizenship of its country and qualified for selection in conformity with the provisions of article 5 of the regulations governing the application of the FIFA statutes. All players must present, on request to the Secretariat of CAF and/or to the commissioner of the match, their valid passport with picture.

35.2. The FUTSAL AFCON shall qualify to the FIFA World Cup according to the slots fixed by FIFA.

Article 36

36.1. For each match, all the players of the host and visiting teams must present their valid passport and national licences.

36.2. If a travelling team loses the passports and/or national licences of one or many of its players, the team is authorized to field the concerned player or players provided that each one of them takes photographs with the match commissioner or the referee, before the match. These photographs shall be given to the referee who shall send them to CAF Secretariat, together with his report. In case of a protest duly lodged, the concerned team shall present to the Secretariat of CAF the valid passports and national licences for comparison with the photographs taken with the referee or the match commissioner.

36.3. A host team is not allowed to field any of its players, if before the kick-off, it does not present valid passports and national licences of the concerned players.

Article 37

Every National Association may, at its own discretion, during the qualifying phase, modify the formation of its team between one match and another, even in case of matches to be replayed, provided that only the players qualified under the present regulations are used.

Article 38

During the match, the substitutions are unlimited according to the laws of the game.

Chapter 17 - Sanctions of Players

Article 39

39.1. For the qualifying phase and the Final Tournament, a player who receives two cautions shall be automatically suspended from playing the following match. This automatic suspension shall be communicated by the Secretariat to the Associations concerned.

39.2 The cautions received during the matches qualifying phase shall not be taken into account for the matches of the Final Tournament. At the end of the first phase of the Final Tournament (group matches), all cautions received shall be cancelled for the rest of the competition. Nevertheless, a player having collected two yellow cards will sustain the one match suspension.

39.3 A player expelled from the field by the referee is automatically suspended for the following match in the framework of the same competition, without prejudice to other sanctions that might be imposed upon him subsequently.

39.4 A player expelled from the field by the referee in two matches of the qualifying phase is automatically suspended for the remaining phase of the qualifiers, without prejudice to other sanctions that might be imposed upon him subsequently.

39.5. If a referee reports a player whose behaviour has caused the abandonment of a match or who has committed a serious violation after the end of the match, the involved player shall be automatically suspended from playing in the following match of the same competition, without prejudice to the sanctions which might be imposed upon him subsequently.

39.6 The suspensions for more than one match shall be applicable to the matches of this competition and/or the matches of any another competition organised by CAF and involving the senior representative national teams.

39.7 In case of serious violations, the guilty player might be suspended not only from FUTSAL AFCON but also from all the competitions of CAF.

39.8 CAF disciplinary Board is empowered to apply disciplinary measures on all incidents registered on the official match reports, before, during or after the match, and this in conformity with the present regulations and CAF disciplinary code.

39.9 Before every match, the Secretariat of CAF shall communicate to the designated match commissioners and referees the name(s) of the suspended player(s) for each match. In this case, the suspended player(s) shall be prohibited from taking part in the match by the match officials. Defaulting officials shall be sanctioned by CAF.

39.10 The tallying of these sanctions remains the responsibility of the national association that shall assume any violation to the regulations.

39.11 A team which allows a non-qualified or a suspended player to take part in a direct knock-out match shall lose the match and shall be eliminated from the competition, even in the absence of protests.

39.12 A team which allows a non-qualified or a suspended player to take part in group matches shall lose the match by penalty (3 – 0), even in the absence of protests/reservations.

39.13 For any deliberate intention to defraud by falsifying official documents, the concerned association shall be suspended in accordance with the present regulations and CAF disciplinary code.

Chapter 18 - Protests–Rights

Article 40

Protests

A protest against the qualification of the players who take part in competition matches must be made according to the following requirements:

40.1. It must be preceded by a nominal and motivated protest formulated before the match on the proper form of the match by the captain of the protesting team and communicated to the captain of the opposing team who will countersign it.

40.2. It must be confirmed by a registered letter or by a fax or email, sent to CAF Secretariat 48 hours after the match at the latest.

40.3. It must be accompanied by the payment of a protest right fixed to 2000 US$ (two thousand US dollars). This amount will be returned to the protesting team if the protest is upheld.

40.4. If a national association requests, for players whose qualification is contested to be confronted, this association will have to bear the whole expenses incurred for the transport and the sojourn of the players and the officials accompanying them. If its claim is accepted the expenses will be borne by the association guilty of fraud.

40.5 Other protests are to be communicated to the Secretariat of CAF within the 48 hours that follow the match by fax or email, registered mail or express courier. A detailed confirmation by registered letter, fax message, or email must reach CAF Secretariat five clear days from the date of the match at the latest.

40.6 The right of protest fixed to 2000 US$ (two thousand US dollars) shall be paid to CAF before the protest can be examined. This amount will be refunded if the protest is upheld.

40.7 The decisions taken by the referee on the ground during the match on matters of fact shall not be subject to protests in any case.

Chapter 19 - Appeals

Article 41

41.1 An appeal can be addressed to the Appeals Committee against the decisions taken by the Organising Committee and by the disciplinary board but not against those stipulated as final.

41.2 The right of appeal is fixed at $3000 (Three Thousand US Dollars) which will be returned to the Association concerned if the appeal is upheld.

41.3 The appeal must reach CAF Secretariat by fax or email within the three days following the dispatch by fax or email of the decision of the Organising Committee or the disciplinary board

41.4. An appeal shall have no delaying effect except in financial matters and for fines.

41.5 During the Final Tournament of the FUTSAL AFCON all decisions taken by the Organising Committee and or by the disciplinary board, to the exception of those reporting the application of the disciplinary measures pronounced on the basis of the reports of match officials are final and without appeal.

41.6 Any decision that may be appealable, can be by the plaintiff, his national association, the CAF Executive Committee or by its (their) representative (s) nominally designated by the Executive Committee to detain this faculty.

41.7 When the appeal comes from the Executive Committee, the defendant is informed as well as the deadline up to which he can send his observations.

41.8 In case of a main appeal interjected by the plaintiff or his National Association (with the written agreement of the person concerned), the person (s) designated by the Executive Committee has (have) an additional deadline of three days in addition to the deadline of an ordinary appeal leading up to six days in the counter-appeal period.

41.9 When the appeal's body is called upon by the person concerned or his association, the disputed penalty may not be aggravated.

Chapter 20 - Fraud- Forgery- Administrative error

Article 42

If CAF is informed, no matter the source, that a fraud or a forgery was committed by any means and /or support whatsoever by one or more national team(s), an investigation will be opened.

Article 43

In case the alleged facts are true, the convicted national association will be suspended from participation in the following two editions of the FUTSAL AFCON.

Article 44

For any administrative error in the registration of players, the national association involved will be suspended from participation in the next edition of the FUTSAL AFCON, and its team will be eliminated from the competition if the latter is still on going.

Chapter 21 - List of players

Article 45

Each Team Participating at the qualifying phase of the FUTSAL AFCON must imperatively transmit to the match officials designated by CAF during the pre-match technical meeting the list of 20 players susceptible to take part at each match.

14 players will be allowed on the match list (5 selected players and 9 substitutes), and no more than 16 people (7 officials and 9 substitutes) shall be allowed to sit on the substitutes' bench. The names of these players and officials must be handed to the match commissioner 90 minutes prior to kick off.

The Commissioner and the referees must disallow any player on the list that does not conform to the standards of qualification of the competition from participation at the match. CAF reserves the right to sanction any failures.

Chapter 22 - Colours of jerseys and shorts – Numbering

Article 46

Each team shall wear the colours of its country. When, in the opinion of the referee, the colours of the two opposing teams might lead to confusion, the visiting team must change its shirts. If the match is played in a neutral country, the referee shall proceed to a draw to determine the team having to change its shirts. Every team shall have a spare outfit available, other than its official colours.

Article 47

The jerseys and shorts of the players must comply with the CAF Equipment Regulations.

Article 48

Publicity on the equipment of the national teams' players is not permitted. The match commissioner and referees must see to it that this provision is strictly observed and if need be, prevent the playing of the match. The faulty association shall be sanctioned according to CAF Equipment regulations.

Chapter 23 - National Anthems and Colours

Article 49

Every travelling team must carry with it a good quality recording (CD and MP3) and a partition of its national anthem as well as the flag of its country.

Chapter 24 - Publicity in the Stadia

Article 50

Publicity for alcohol and tobacco is permitted on the occasion of all the matches organised by CAF within the framework of FUTSAL AFCON, provided that the laws of the host country allow such publicity.

Chapter 25 - Transmission and Publicity Rights

Article 51

The transmission and publicity rights of all matches during the preliminary rounds are the propriety of CAF. The national associations should respect all CAF agreements, contracts and engagements. CAF will distribute the publicity receipts to the participating teams.

Chapter 26 - Doping

Article 52

52.1. Doping is the use of substances that could have the effect of artificially improving the player's physical and/or mental condition and so augmenting artificially his athletic performance.

52.2. Doping is strictly forbidden internationally

52.3 The use of doping substances shall be punished in accordance with the CAF Disciplinary Code.

52.4 The organising committee has the right to carry out anti-doping control of the players at any time during the matches of FUTSAL AFCON.

52.5 The organising committee is in charge of deciding which authorised laboratory shall proceed to the analysis of samples.

52.6 The regulations of doping control for FIFA and non-FIFA competitions, the disciplinary code of CAF and other related FIFA directives are applied to the matches of the FUTSAL AFCON.

Chapter 27 - Forfeit, Withdrawals, Refusal to Play, and Replacement

Article 53

The registered teams must play all the matches of the qualifying phase. In case of forfeit, they shall be responsible for financial consequences that shall be determined by the organising Committee.

Article 54

Any national association declaring forfeit after having registered and before the drawing of lots shall lose its entry fees and is liable to a fine of two thousand five hundred (2 500) U.S. dollars. It shall also not be allowed to participate in the next edition of the FUTSAL AFCON.

Article 55

Any national Association declaring forfeit after the drawing of lots and before the start of matches is liable to a fine of five thousand (5,000) U.S. dollars. It will also not be allowed to participate in the next edition of the FUTSAL AFCON.

Article 56

Any association declaring forfeit after the start of the matches is liable to a fine of ten thousand (10,000) U.S. dollars. It will also not be allowed to participate in the next edition of the FUTSAL AFCON.

Article 57

If a team withdraws from the qualifying phase, the opposing team, which it was scheduled to meet, shall be qualified for the next round.

Article 58

Any team that withdraws or refuses to play the return match after having played the first leg on its own territory must refund the association of the visiting team a minimum sum of ten thousand (10,000) U.S. dollars in repair for the damage suffered by the host country.

Article 59

If, for any reason whatsoever, a team withdraws from the competition or does not report for a match, except in cases of force majeure accepted by the Organising Commission, or refuses to play or leaves the ground before the regular end of the match without the authorisation of the referee, it shall be considered looser and shall be eliminated for good from the current competition.

Article 60

A team that shall not be present on the ground, dressed to play at the time fixed for kick-off or at most 15 minutes later, shall forfeit the match. The referee shall register the absence of the team and shall write it in his report. The Organising Committee shall take the final decision in this respect.

Article 61

The guilty team under the terms of the above articles will be eliminated for good from the competition. This team will lose its match by 3-0 unless the opponent has scored a more advantageous result at the moment when the match was interrupted, in this case this score will be maintained. The Organising Committee may adopt further measures.

Article 62

The guilty team shall be excluded from the tournament and as a result none of its matches shall be taken into consideration. The Organising Committee can take further measures.

Article 63

The Organising Committee shall deal with cases of force majeure likely to be raised.

Chapter 28 - Organisation of the Final Tournament

Article 64

Eight representative teams shall be qualified for the Final Tournament.

64.1 Only the team of the association organising the Final Tournament is automatically qualified.

64.2 The seven (7) teams are qualified for the final tournament after the matches of the preliminary tournament.

64.3 The matches of the Final Tournament must be played in the territory of the organising association. In case of co-organisation, the matches must be played in the territories of the co-organiser countries.

64.4 The dates and venues of the Final Tournament matches shall be fixed by the Organising Committee of CAF, after consultation of the organising association, allowing each team to have a minimum break of 48 hours between two matches.

64.5 The kick-off time of the matches shall be fixed by the Organising Committee. The teams must be present in the dressing rooms at least 90 minutes before kick-off. Each team must present the accreditations of the 14 players selected and registered on the sheet of the match to take part in the match.

Chapter 29 - Colours of jerseys and shorts - Numbering

Article 65

Each association shall communicate to CAF, a month before the kick-off of the Final Tournament, the main colours and the reserve colours of its equipment. The numbers from 1 to 14 on the shirts and shorts as well as the players' names on the shirts must comply with the CAF Equipment Regulations. The number 1 will be reserved exclusively to one of the goalkeepers. The selected numbers on the shirts must correspond to those indicated in the final list of players.

Chapter 30 - List of players for the Final Tournament

Article 66

66.1 Ten (10) days before the first match of the Final Tournament, a list of a maximum of 14 players must be submitted to CAF secretariat and the teams concerned. Any national Association that does not conform to this provision will pay to CAF a fine of ten thousand (10.000) US dollars. No other modification to the list of 14 players will be allowed, unless in cases of force majeure recognized as such by the organizing Committee. If the list of 14 players is not received at CAF Secretariat 7 days prior to the kick-off day of the Final Tournament, the concerned team will be only allowed to register 13 players.

66.2 A player on the final list cannot be replaced unless seriously injured at the latest twenty-four hours (24) at least before the beginning of the first match of his team. The CAF medical Committee must approve his substitution in writing, after reception and approval of a detailed medical certificate. CAF medical Committee shall write a certificate attesting that the wound is sufficiently serious to prevent the player from participating at the FUTSAL AFCON and will submit this certificate to the organizing Committee for approval.

Once the certificate is approved, the association should then immediately appoint a substitute immediately and inform CAF General Secretariat accordingly. CAF General Secretariat shall publish the final list of 14 players.

66.3 14 players will be allowed on the match list (5 selected players and 9 substitutes), and no more than 16 people (7 officials and 9 substitutes) shall be allowed to sit on the substitutes' bench. The names of these players and officials must be handed to the General Coordinator 90 minutes prior to kick off.

Chapter 31 - First Phase of the Final Tournament

Article 67

67.1 Two groups A and B each of four teams shall be formed. The Organising Committee of CAF shall designate two heads of groups. The organising country shall be the head of group A.

67.2 If the holder of the trophy is qualified, it will be the head of group B. If the holder did not qualify, the head of group B shall be determined by the Organising Committee of CAF on the basis of the CAF Official FUTSAL AFCON Ranking of the previous tournament.

67.3 The six (6) other teams shall be distributed in the groups by a public drawing of lots at which the representatives of the participating teams shall be invited. However, the absence of these representatives shall not hamper the organisation of the drawing of lots on the scheduled day.

67.4 The date of the drawing of lots will be fixed by the Organizing Committee.

67.5. The group matches shall be played in accordance with the calendar established by the Organising Committee.

67.6 The classification of the groups shall be established as follows:

- 3 points for the winner
- 1 point for a draw
- 0 point for the loser

Article 68

68.1 In case of equality between two teams at the end of the group matches, the teams will be ranked according to the following criteria in the order listed below:

- 68.1.1 The greatest number of points obtained in the match between the two teams concerned;
- 68.1.2 The goal difference in all group matches;
- 68.1.3 The greatest number of goals scored in all group matches;
- 68.1.4 A drawing of lots conducted by the Organising Committee.

68.2 In case of equality between more than two teams at the end of the group matches, the teams will be ranked according to the following criteria in the order listed below:

- 68.2.1 The greatest number of points obtained in the matches between the teams concerned;
- 68.2.2 The best goal difference in the matches between the teams concerned;

68.2.3 The greatest number of goals scored in the matches between the teams concerned;

68.2.4 If after applying criteria 68.2.1 to 68.2.3, two teams still are tied, 68.2.1 to 68.2.3 criteria are again applied to matches played between the two teams in question to determine the final ranking of the two teams. If this procedure does not allow separating them, the criteria listed from 68.2.5 to 68.2.7 are applied in the indicated order;

- 68.2.5 The goal difference in all group matches;
- 68.2.6 The greatest number of goals scored in all group matches;
- 68.2.7 A drawing of lots conducted by the Organising Committee.

Chapter 32 - Second Phase of the Final Tournament

Article 69

69.1 At the conclusion of the matches of both groups, the first and the second of each group shall be qualified for the semi-finals.

The semi-final matches shall be played with the following order:

- I. Winner Group A/Second Group B
- II. Winner Group B/Second Group A

69.2. The semi-final matches shall be played by the system of direct elimination of the loser. An extra time of 2 x 3 minutes shall be played in case of a draw after the regular time of the match. If after extra time the result is still not decisive, the winner shall be determined by the taking of kicks from the penalty mark according to the futsal laws of the game.

69.3. The losers of the semi-finals shall play a match for the third place. In case of a draw after the end of the regular time, the winner shall be determined by the taking of kicks from the penalty mark according to the futsal laws of the game.

69.4 The final shall be played between the winners of the semi-finals. In case of a draw match after the regular time, an extra-time of 2 x3 minutes shall be played. If after the extra time the result is still a draw, kicks will be taken from the penalty mark to determine the winner according to the futsal laws of the game.

Article 70

The matches shall be played under floodlights.

Chapter 33 - Organising Sub-Committees

Article 71

For the Final Tournament, Organising Sub- Committees shall be established and they shall stay in the organising country to supervise the matches. The President and the members of the Referees Committee, the Medical Committee and the Technical Committee of CAF shall assist these sub-committees on a consultative title, without the right to vote.

71.1 The sub-committees are invested with the attributions of CAF Organising Committee as defined in the present regulations.

71.2. Each sub-committee shall designate a commissioner among its members to officiate each group match it controls.

71.3. Each sub-committee shall organise the technical meeting at the eve or on the day of the match and shall ratify the results the day following the match.

Chapter 34 - Withdrawals, sanctions for refusal to play and replacement

Article 72

A forfeit declared from the qualification to the drawing of lots, shall entail further to the loss of entry fees, a fine of twenty five thousand (25,000) US dollars as well as the suspension of the relevant Association for next edition of the FUTSAL AFCON, except in cases of force majeure as defined by the Organising Committee of CAF.

Article 73

Article 75

For any team qualified for the final phase, the concerned national association must enter its best representative team. If an association declares through its officials including the coaches that it will align another team than its best representative team, the Organising Committee shall impose all the necessary sanctions.

Chapter 35 - Withdrawals

Article 76

If, for any reason whatsoever, a team withdraws from the competition or does not report for a match, or refuses to play or leaves the ground before the regular end of the match without the authorisation of the referee, it shall be considered loser and shall be eliminated for good from the current competition. The same shall apply for the teams previously disqualified by decision of CAF.

Article 77

A team that shall not be present on the ground, dressed to play at the time fixed for kick-off or at most 15 minutes later, shall forfeit the match. The referee shall register the absence of the team and shall write it in his report. The Organising Committee shall take the final decision in this respect.

Article 78

The guilty team under the terms of articles 76 and 77 shall be eliminated for good from the competition. This team will lose its matches by 3- 0 unless the opponent has scored a more advantageous result at the moment when the match was interrupted, in this case this score will be maintained. The Organising Committee may adopt further measures.

Article 79

The guilty team shall be eliminated from the tournament and as a result none of its matches shall be taken into consideration, unless the incidents mentioned in article 77 did not occur in the last group match. The Organising Committee may adopt further measures.

Article 80

If a team withdraws after its qualification in the Final Tournament, but before its actual start, it shall be replaced by the team classified next in the group of the team in question. In default, the group to which belongs the forfeiting team shall be composed of three teams.

Article 81

If a team withdraws at the start of the Final Tournament without playing all the matches of its group, it shall be considered looser of all the remaining matches it was scheduled to play by the score of three to nil.

Article 82

If a team withdraws after having obtained its qualification for the semi-finals, it shall be replaced by the team which is classified next in the group.

Article 83

If a finalist team refuses to play the final, it shall be replaced by the team it has eliminated in the semi-final. The other losing semi-finalist shall be declared third of the competition.

Article 84

The organising committee will take whatever action is necessary in cases of force majeure.

Article 85

If a country having been entrusted with the organisation of the Final Tournament of the FUTSAL AFCON is desisting, it shall be subject, in addition to further disciplinary sanctions, to a fine fixed according to the following scale:
